FILMS ON STEINWAY

“In Debt We Trust” by Danny Schechter

“... is about a growing inequality that some experts fear will lead to a new 21st century serfdom. It's about the transfer of wealth from working people into the vaults and accounts of a relatively small number of financial institutions and real estate interests. The lenders are profiting by charging usurious rates and doing so legally, in part, because they have mastered the art and science of marketing products and then manipulating media, politicians, and political institutions.”

AFPJ is pleased to announce that Danny Schechter will be joining us to talk about his film. Danny Schechter is a television producer and independent filmmaker who also writes and speaks about media issues. He is one of the founders of MediaChannel (www.mediachannel.org), where he writes a popular daily blog about politics, culture, and the media. Danny Schechter's previous work includes the film, WMD: Weapons of Mass Deception, and the books, News Dissector: Passions, Pieces and Polemics (Akashic Press) and The More You Watch, The Less You Know (Seven Stories Press).
